Importers Will Rush in Many Packages.

AFRAID OF TARIFF CHANGES

The Election Is a Note of Warning to Them, and Foreign Potteries Will Be Rushed With Orders—Prospects For A Higher Duty May Be Brighter, But All People Do Not Think So.

"The importers will send lots of orders across the water this week, and foreign potteries will be pushed day and night to get the ware out before there are changes in the tariff."

The speaker was one of the best informed potters in the city, and he spoke with knowledge when he made the assertion. There were only a few to hear what he had to say, but they listened attentively as he continued:

"The great Republican victory is scaring the importers, and the reason I know is because I have a letter from a friend in New York to that effect. Two years ago, when Governor McKinley swept the state by such a big majority, the importers only laughed a little and said the people were afraid of the panic, and last year when the vote was so big they blamed it on the hard times; but this year they are frightened. They had hoped that the signs of returning prosperity would keep the people in line, but they didn't. Now they realize that the government must look somewhere for revenue to make up the deficit, and run the government. They are a shrewd lot of fellows, and realizing that Cleveland will never consent to a tax on beer, they fear he will permit some changes in the tariff. That's what makes them quake. With Foraker, a firm friend of protective duties, in the senate, and working congressmen from almost every district in the country where there is a pottery, they fear a hard fight will be made for a restoration of a part of the duty taken away by that monstrosity they call the Gorman law. That's why they are ordering ware. They want a lot of it on hand before the duty goes up, and the news I have from New York shows that they are going to have it."

Diligent inquiry has developed the fact that if any change is made in the tariff, the friends of pottery will be on hand to fight every inch of the way for their industry. Every influence that can be brought to bear on the committee will be used; but there are any number among the pottery people who do not believe any change will be made until there is a Republican president to sign the law.

BACKING THE PROPHET.

Friends of D. J. Smith Want a Place For Him.

A movement is well started that has for its object the appointment of D. J. Smith, the prophet of Pisgah, to a good position under the new administration. Mr. Smith has long served in the ranks of the party, and his voice has often been raised in the defense of Republicanism and the principles of good government. He has often been weighed in the balance, but has never been found wanting, and for that reason his many friends, political and personal, believe General Bushnell should recognize him with a good paying position. The place that Mr. Smith could fill very acceptably is that of oil inspector for the First district. The gentleman is well qualified for the place, and can fill it as well as any man in Ohio. Local Republicans at the proper time will use their best effort to secure the place for Mr. Smith.

BURGARS.

They Break Into the Warehouse of Zeb Kinsey.

Some one burst the door of Zeb Kinsey's warehouse, situated between Fifth and Sixth streets, last night, and got away with a couple of albums and possibly some other property. Mr. Kinsey is under the impression that some tough youngsters did the job, and the ringleaders are known and will be spotted. Said young toughs have been bothering the citizens of that immediate vicinity very much of late, and complaint has been made of their actions to the mayor. Mr. Kinsey's storeroom on the Diamond was broken into about a month since, and $40 or $50 worth of goods taken. The proprietor kept the matter quiet at the time, believing that he had a clue to the perpetrators, and could best ferret them out by keeping the loss private.

READY TO SKATE.

An East End Writes of the Sidewalks They Have.

A prominent resident of the East End, who states that he has lived there for 15 years, and before settling in Liverpool traveled 10,000 miles or more in this country, writes the News Review about their sidewalks. Facetiously he refers to them as being smooth as oilcloth, four feet wide in some places and 12 feet wide in others. He speaks of them as splendid places on which the people can skate during the coming winter, and thinks they will be dangerous competitors of the skating pond. Evidently this one of the oldest residents does not think the pavements of East End are a success.

A NEW FEATURE.

There is a Shortage of Imported Ware in the Market.

The New York correspondent of a trade journal says:

"One feature of the present condition is a shortage of imported goods of certain lines, especially of German make. Holiday goods are in brisk demand, and there is more than one importer who is anxiously awaiting bills of lading covering these goods to enable him to cover deficiencies in his stock sheets. Those houses who maintain buyers on the other side as well as on this enjoy a marked advantage in business, for their agents are enabled to pick up better and earlier shipments, can rush goods over and supply their home houses some weeks earlier than the rest of the trade."

THE NEW CARS.

They Will Be Here Not Later Than November 15.

It is learned upon the best of authority that the new cars for the electric line will be here not later than Nov. 15, and the motormen will be provided with the protection required by law after that date. The information comes from a reliable source, and is accompanied by the assertion that the late strike was settled upon this agreement, Mr. Davies promising the men that they would not have to face the weather after that date. Although the statement is not made positively, it is understood that no effort will be made to have the law enforced until after that date.

STILL AT IT.

Senator Quay is Pushing the River Improvement.

The plan which Senator Quay has mapped out for the improvement of the Ohio is now his most cherished scheme, and he has all his influential friends thinking about the scheme. Yesterday he had a conference with some of the leading coal men of Pittsburgh, and by them was provided with a vast amount of data for use when he lays his plan before the committee of congress. The certainty surrounding the future of Hon. J. B. Foraker is another feature which makes the friends of river improvement feel good, for he is heart and soul in the movement, and will be a good man to have in congress.

A PAIR OF DRUNKS.

They Were Only Boys and Claimed to be From Wellsville.

Two boys, who could not have been more than 18 years of age at most, were drunk in the city last night. They were seen staggering around Second street and the passenger station early in the evening and were later on West Market street and in the Diamond. One of the boys claimed that they were from Wellsville, and were having a time, but the other attempted to shut him up, and denied the story. The pair were so drunk that they had some difficulty in walking, and it is believed they are from one of the smaller towns down the river.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Second U. P. Church Filled—Epworth League to Start.

Reverend Lytell, of Wellsville, preached at the Second United Presbyterian church last evening, the building being crowded. Reverend Green will preach this evening, his subject being "Many Mansions." At the meeting of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening it was decided that revival services should be commenced not later than Nov. 17, and continued as long as the interest justifies it. The leaguers are enthusiastic in the movement.

MASHED HIS FOOT.

An East End Man Dropped a Piece of Lumber.

C. E. Vandev, an East End man well known in that part of the city, was unloading a car of lumber near the sewer pipe works yesterday afternoon, when he met with an accident that will prevent him performing labor for some time to come. While lifting a heavy piece of lumber his hold slipped, and the big stick fell on his foot mashing it severely, and compelling the presence of a physician.

JENNINGS IS GUILTY

The Jury So Decided Late This Afternoon.

A MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Will Be Argued Some Time Next Week. The Prosecution Gave Positive Evidence and the Defence Claimed Resistance. The Case Is Well Known.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—William Jennings, the East Liverpool policeman who was indicted for assault and battery because he beat Charles McGavern with his mace when that individual was under arrest, is on trial here today.

The testimony for the prosecution was given by A. N. Stevenson, J. M. Manor, R. L. Edmondston, D. H. Yant and Walter and Homer Stewart, and they all told the same story. The evidence as given showed they were standing near the corner of Sixth and Market streets when McGavern appeared very drunk. Jennings placed him under arrest, and struck the man with his mace over the head and shoulders not less than 20 or 25 times. They also testified that McGavern was very drunk, so much so that he could not make any resistance or defend himself. McGavern was placed on the stand, and told substantially the same story. He declared he was too drunk to resist the officer, and so much under the influence of liquor that he did not remember much about it.

The defense was made up chiefly of the testimony of Officers Jennings and Earle, and the only claim was that McGavern had resisted. The jury was out a short time, and returned a verdict of guilty. A motion was made for a new trial.

WEARY OF MATRIMONY.

Two Couples Seek Separation In Court.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—James E. Sage, a Wellsville man, today asked the court to give him a divorce from his wife because she was absent from their home during the years of 1890 and 1891. They were married in Kansas City, and have no children.

Myra Rembert, of Salineville, also applied for a divorce today from her husband, Samuel Rembert. They were married in Clarksburg, W. Va., and have one child, the custody of which she asks.

IN A WAGON.

Lisbon Burglars Carry Away Valuable Goods.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—The boldest burglary that has occurred in Lisbon for many months was the talk of the town this morning. The store of the Taylor company, a new concern, was robbed, and merchandise to the value of $600 taken away. It is believed the thieves had a wagon, and gaining an entrance to the store they loaded the vehicle and drove away. The store was nicely fixed up, but when the thieves were done with it there was little left.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

McCord and Skelly are Out of a Scrape.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—The charge of pocket picking against Bert McCord and John Skelly, of Wellsville, was heard in court and came to naught. The man Potts, who claimed to be the victim, was placed on the stand, but his evidence was so conflicting and his knowledge of the matter so meagre that the case was dismissed, and the accused released.

DIPHTHERIA IN TOWN.

A Case Developed on Second Street Today.

Health Officer Ogden was notified this morning that a case of diphtheria had developed on Second street, and the child was suffering from the disease, although not yet in a dangerous condition. The usual precautions were at once taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and the house was quarantined. The family moved here about six weeks ago from Wheeling, and the authorities do not think for a minute that there is danger of the disease going farther than that one case.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Pleasant Parties in the City Last Evening.

Clyde McClain was pleasantly surprised at the home of his parents on Jefferson street last evening, a large number of his young friends being entertained. Appetizing refreshments were served at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Robinson, of California hollow, was surprised by his friends and neighbors last evening, all of them coming to spend a few hours with him before he left the city. The gentleman leaves tonight for New York, and from there he will go to England. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maylone, of Sunnyside, entertained 30 of their friends last evening in honor of the seventeenth anniversary of their marriage. Dainty refreshments were served, and a pleasant evening spent with dancing and cards.

Miss Ella Laughlin of Thompson hill, entertained a party of friends in a delightful manner last evening. Dancing was the amusement.

THE LINE UP.

How the Boys Will Play Tomorrow Afternoon.

Manager Harry Smith, of the football team, announces that his boys will play tomorrow afternoon as follows:

Right end, T. McClean; right tackle, McClure, right guard, Harris; center, Capt. Wilbur Snedicker; left guard, Wagner; left tackle, Charley Hall; left end, D. McLean; quarterback, Baum; right half back, Stevenson; left half back, Herbert; full back, Bob Hall; extras, Hill, Bearsford, Henry, Scullen, Edwards, Huston and Wallace.

The game will be called as soon after 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon as possible. The time keepers have not yet been chosen, but they will be announced tomorrow.

BOY BADLY INJURED.

A Neat and Skillful Piece of Surgical Work.

Yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, Lawrence, the little son of Edward Schneider, corner Second and Washington streets, while engaged at play in the alley back of Rinehart's stable, was so unfortunate as to have a scaffolding pulled down upon him by a playmate, the result being a compound fracture of the left leg above the ankle. Doctors McVoy and Laughlin were summoned, and the broken limb was set in a manner which reflects full credit on their skill as surgeons. The injured lad is doing nicely, but the father claims the city is responsible for the accident.

DETECTIVE HUCKLE'S LECTURE.

Will Talk to Men in the First Presbyterian Church.

Detective Huckle will deliver a "Talk to Men" on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10, in the First Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock. None will be admitted unless by ticket, and no one less than 15 years of age can gain admission, with or without ticket. Mr. Huckle has had many years experience as a detective in the old country, when engaged in ferreting out crimes and criminals, and his experience in East Liverpool has been of a decidedly interesting character. His aim, backed by good men of this city, is to see that existing laws are enforced.

BEATS THE RECORD.

The Longest Waltz in the History of the City.

What is believed by those who claim to know to be the longest waltz in the terpsichorean history of the city was danced at the rooms of the Alvin club last evening. Joseph Cassidy, a well known young potter, was the man, and for an hour and 45 minutes he kept whirling around while the pianist played waltz after waltz until he had passed through 41 different selections. The unusual occurrence was the result of the assertion of the pianist that he could play waltz music, without repeating a piece, as long as any one could dance.

TAKEN TO CLEVELAND.

A Destitute Tailor in Charge of the Trustees.

John Willinsky, a tailor who has been ill in the city for several months, was taken in charge by the township trustees this morning, and sent to the Catholic hospital in Cleveland.

Thomas Humphreys was a caller at the office of the trustees this morning, and demanded that he be provided with shoes and other necessities, but he went away disappointed. Since Thomas returned from the infirmary they have no room for him at the township headquarters.

In Insurance Now.

Mr. Kennedy, the New Philadelphia man who has a wide acquaintance in this city, because he was frequently called here early in the summer, was in town today on business. At that time Mr. Kennedy was a deputy revenue collector, and had in charge the collection of the income tax for this district. When the law was declared unconstitutional, Mr. Kennedy, like many others, lost his position, and now he is engaged in the insurance business in Canton.

HE WHIPPED HIS WIFE

A West End Man Caused a Great Commotion.

ESCAPED FROM THE POLICE

The Patrol Was Called, But he Boarded a Street Car and Went to Wellsville—Furniture Mashed, and the Household Turned Topsy Turvy.

Another case of wife beating came under the eyes of the police last night, but the guilty man escaped to Wellsville by boarding a street car.

The patrol was called to the West End last night, and made a quick run, but found the bird was gone. A man named Wallace, according to the story given to the police, had gone to Wellsville in the afternoon, and filling up with liquor had come home with a humor for anything. His wife displeased him in some way, and he abused her in a shameful manner. The stories of how the husband acted conflict somewhat, but all tell a tale of abuse for the wife and children. Then the furniture was not pleasing to him, and he began to destroy it, turning the house almost inside out in his endeavor to satisfy his yearning for destruction. Some of the neighbors turned in the alarm, but Wallace heard of it, and taking the first car returned to Wellsville. Mrs. Wallace promised the police to call at city hall and make a charge against her husband this morning.

THEY ARE SORE.

East End People Wanted the Hill Road Improved.

The people of East End are sore because the bond issue failed on election day, and they are not slow in giving vent to their feelings.

"Doctor Marshall fought like a beaver for Avondale street and improvements in the West End," said a prominent resident to the News Review, "and I think it shameful that those parts of town voted as they did. It is enough to make the East End people feel sore, and I tell you that it does. The ingratitude manifested in that vote makes me tired all over, and it looks as though the city don't want the East End to have anything."

PERMANENT QUARTERS.

The McKinley Club Decide on Improvements.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the McKinley club last evening, and the business was transacted in short order. It was decided to furnish the room splendidly and make a number of purchases that will materially add to the appearance of the pleasant quarters the club already have. There will be no jollification this year, although the club realizes as well as any the great victory. Among those who were present and spoke at the meeting was Samuel Fisher, of Negley.

TO THE WORKS.

A Liverpool Man Got a Sentence in Pittsburgh.

The Liverpool man who gave his name as W. E. Moore in Pittsburgh and was so filled with Monongahela dew that he could not contain himself, and knocked a saloon keeper through a plate glass window, was brought into police court yesterday. He had no plea to make, and the judge gave him 30 day in the works. There is some speculation here as to the identity of the man, for no saloon keeper bearing that name resides in this city.

THE BANNER.

St. Clair Had a Large Percentage of Increase.

The Republicans of St. Clair township are happy, because they believe they won the banner. At the beginning of the campaign the county committee offered a handsome banner to the township that would show the greatest Republican gain, and St. Clair thinks it has won out. Last year the plurality there was 23 and this year it is 46, making a clear gain of 100 per cent. As yet the comparison has not been officially made, but it seems beyond question that no other township made that gain.

OVER THE HILL.

The Trustees Send a Boy to the Poor House.

The township trustees this afternoon sent a boy named Clarence Thompson to the poor house where he will remain for the present. Thompson has a step-father who it is alleged refuses him a home. Complaint was made to the poor authorities, and as the boy was too old to send to the Children's home, and they had no family where he could be placed, they decided to send him to the infirmary. The boy went without a murmur.

AFRAID OF TARIFF CHANGES

The Election Is a Note of Warning to

"The importers will send lots of

The speaker was one of the best in-

Diligent inquiry has developed the fact that if any change is made in the tariff, the friends of pottery will be on

for their industry. Every influence that can be brought to bear on the

who do not believe any change will be made until there is a Republican president to sign the law.

BACKING THE PROPHET.

Friends of D. J. Smith Want a Place

tration. Mr. Smith has long served in

JENNINGS IS GUILTY

The Jury So Decided Late This Afternoon.

A MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Will be Argued Some Time Next Week
The Prosecution Gave Positive Evidence
and the Defence Claimed Resistance.
The Case is Well Known.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—William Jennings,
the East Liverpool policeman who was indicted for assault and battery because he beat Charles McGavern with his mace when that individual was under arrest, is on trial here today.

The testimony for the prosecution
was given by A. N. Stevenson, J. M.
Manor, R. L. Edmondston, D. H.
Yant and Walter and Homer Stewart, and they all told the same story. The evidence as given showed they were standing near the corner of Sixth and Market streets when McGavern appeared very drunk. Jennings placed him under arrest, and struck the man with his mace over the head
and shoulders not less than 20 or 25
times. They also testified that Mc-Gavern was very drunk, so much so that he could not make any resistance or defend himself. McGavern was placed on the stand, and told substantially the same story. He declared he was too drunk to resist the officer, and so much under the influence of liquor
that he did not remember much about it.

The defense was made up chiefly of the testimony of Officers Jennings and Earle, and the only claim was that McGavern had resisted. The jury was out a short time, and returned a verdict of guilty.
A motion was made for a new trial.

WEARY OF MATRIMONY.

Two Couples Seek Separation In Court.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—James E. Sage, a Wellsville man, today asked the court to give him a divorce from his wife because she was absent from their home during the years of 1890 and 1891. They were married in Kansas City, and have no children.

Myra Rembert, of Sallineville, also applied for a divorce today from her husband, Samuel Rembert. They were married in Clarksburg, W. Va., and have one child, the custody of which she asks.

IN A WAGON.

Lisbon Burglars Carry Away Valuable Goods.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—The boldest burglary that has occurred in Lisbon for many months was the talk of the town this morning. The store of the Taylor company, a new concern, was robbed, and merchandise to the value of $600 taken away. It is believed the thieves had a wagon, and gaining an entrance to the store they loaded the vehicle and drove away. The store was nicely fixed up, but when the thieves were done with it there was little left.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

McCord and Skelly are Out of a Scrape.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Nov. 8.—The charge of pocket picking against Bert McCord and John Skelly, of Wellsville, was heard in court and came to naught.
The man Potts, who claimed to be the victim, was placed on the stand, but his evidence was so conflicting and his knowledge of the matter so meagre that the case was dismissed,
and the accused released.

DIPHTHERIA IN TOWN.

A Case Developed on Second Street
Today.

Health Officer Ogden was notified
this morning that a case of diphtheria had developed on Second street, and the child was suffering from the disease, although not yet in a dangerous condition. The usual precautions were at once taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and the house was quarantined. The family moved here about six weeks ago from Wheeling, and the authorities do not think for a minute that there is danger of the disease going farther than that one case.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Pleasant Parties in the City Last Evening.

Clyde McClain was pleasantly surprised at the home of his parents on Jefferson street last evening, a large number of his young friends being entertained. Appetizing refreshments were served at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Robinson, of California hollow,

was surprised by his friends and neighbors last evening, all of them
coming to spend a few hours with him before he left the city. The gentleman leaves tonight for New York,
and from there he will go to England.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maylone, of Sunnyside, entertained 30 of their friends last evening in honor of the seventeenth anniversary of their marriage. Delightful refreshments were served, and a pleasant evening spent with dancing and cards.

Miss Ella Laughlin of Thompson
hill, entertained a party of friends in a delightful manner last evening.
Dancing was the amusement.

THE LINE UP.

How the Boys Will Play Tomorrow Afternoon.

Manager Harry Smith, of the foot ball team, announces that his boys will play tomorrow afternoon as follows:

Right end, T. McClean; right tackle
McClure, right guard, Harris; center,
Capt. Wilbur Snedicker; left guard, Wagner; left tackle, Charley Hall;
left end, D. McLean; quarterback, Baum; right half back, Stevenson;
left half back, Herbert; full back, Bob Hall; extras, Hill, Bearsford, Henry, Scullen, Edwards, Huston and Wallace.

The game will be called as soon after 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon as possible. The time keepers have not yet been chosen, but they will be announced tomorrow.

BOY BADLY INJURED.

A Neat and Skillful Piece of Surgical Work.

Yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, Lawrence, the little son of Edward Schneider, corner Second and Washington streets, while engaged at play in the alley back of Rinehart's stable, was so unfortunate as to have a scaffolding pulled down upon him by a playmate, the result being a compound fracture of the left leg above
the ankle. Doctors McVoy and Laughlin were summoned, and the broken limb was set in a manner which reflects full credit on their skill as surgeons. The injured lad is doing nicely, but the father claims
the city is responsible for the accident.

DETECTIVE HUCKLE'S LECTURE.

Will Talk to Men in the First Presbyterian Church.

Detective Huckle will deliver a
"Talk to Men" on Sunday afternoon,
Nov. 10, in the First Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock. None will be admitted unless by ticket, and no one less than 10 years of age can gain admission, with or without ticket. Mr.
Huckle has had many years experience as a detective in the old country, when engaged in ferreting out crimes and criminals, and his experience in East Liverpool has been of a decidedly interesting character. His aim, backed by good men of this city,
is to see that existing laws are enforced.

BEATS THE RECORD.

The Longest Waltz in the History of the City.

What is believed by those who claim to know to be the longest waltz
in the terpsichorean history of the city was danced at the rooms of the Alvin club last evening. Joseph Cassidy, a well known young potter,
was the man, and for an hour and 45
minutes he kept whirling around while the pianist played waltz after waltz until he had passed through 41 different selections. The unusual occurrence was the result of the assertion of the pianist that he could play waltz music, without repeating a piece, as long as any one could dance.

TAKEN TO CLEVELAND.

A Destitute Tailor In Charge of the Trustees.

John Willinsky, a tailor who has been ill in the city for several months,
was taken in charge by the township trustees this morning, and sent to the Catholic hospital in Cleveland.

Thomas Humphreys was a caller at the office of the trustees this morning, and demanded that he be provided with shoes and other necessities, but he went away disappointed. Since Thomas returned from the infirmary
they have no room for him at the township headquarters.

In Insurance Now.

Mr. Kennedy, the New Philadelphia man who has a wide acquaintance in this city, because he was frequently called here early in the summer, was in town today on business. At that time Mr. Kennedy was a deputy revenue collector, and had in charge
the collection of the income tax for this district. When the law was declared unconstitutional, Mr. Kennedy,
like many others, lost his position,
and now he is engaged in the insurance business in Canton.

HE WHIPPED HIS WIFE

A West End Man Caused a Great Commotion.

ESCAPED FROM THE POLICE

The Patrol Was Called, But he Boarded a Street Car and Went to Wellsville—Furniture Mashed, and the Household Turned Topsy Turvy.

Another case of wife beating came under the eyes of the police last night,
but the guilty man escaped to Wells-
ville by boarding a street car.

The patrol was called to the West End last night, and made a quick run,
but found the bird was gone. A man named Wallace, according to the story
given to the police, had gone to Wells-ville in the afternoon, and bling up with liquor had come home with a humor for anything. His wife displeased him in some way, and he abused her in a shameful manner.
The stories of how the husband acted conflict somewhat, but all tell a tale of abuse for the wife and children. Then the furniture was not pleasing to him,
and he began to destroy it, turning
the house almost inside out in his endeavor to satisfy his yearning for destruction. Some of the neighbors turned in the alarm, but Wallace heard of it, and taking the first car returned to Wellsville. Mrs. Wallace promised the police to call at city hall
and make a charge against her husband this morning.

THEY ARE SORE.

East End People Wanted the Hill Road
Improved.

The people of East End are sore because the bond issue failed on election day, and they are not slow in giving vent to their feelings.

"Doctor Marshall fought like a beaver for Avondale street and improvements in the West End," said a prominent resident to the NEWS RE-VIEW, "and I think it shameful that those parts of town voted as they did.
It is enough to make the East End
people feel sore, and I tell you that it does. The ingratitude manifested in that vote makes me tired all over, and it looks as though the city don't want the East End to have anything."

PERMANENT QUARTERS.

The McKinley Club Decide on Improvements.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the McKinley club last evening, and the business was transacted in short order. It was decided to furnish the room splendidly and make a number of purchases that will materially add to the appearance of the pleasant quarters the club already have. There will be no jollification
this year, although the club realizes
as well as any the great victory.
Among those who were present and spoke at the meeting was Samuel Fisher, of Negley.

TO THE WORKS.

A Liverpool Man Got a Sentence in Pittsburg.

The Liverpool man who gave his name as W. E. Moore
in Pittsburgh and was so filled with Monongahela dew that he could not contain himself, and knocked a saloon keeper through a plate glass window, was brought into police court yesterday. He had no plea to make, and the judge gave him 30 days in the works. There is some speculation here as to the identity of the man, for no saloon keeper bearing
that name resides in this city.

THE BANNER.

St. Clair Had a Large Percentage of Increase.

The Republicans of St. Clair township are happy, because they believe they won the banner. At the beginning of the campaign the county committee offered a handsome banner to the township that would show the greatest Republican gain, and St.
Clair thinks it has won out. Last year the plurality there was 23 and this year it is 46, making a clear gain of 100 per cent. As yet the comparison has not been officially made, but it seems beyond question that no other township made that gain.

OVER THE HILL.

The Trustees Send a Boy to the Poor House.

The township trustees this afternoon sent a boy named Clarence Thompson to the poor house where he will remain for the present. Thompson has a step-father who it is alleged refuses him a home. Complaint was made to the poor authorities, and as the boy was too old to send to the Children's home, and they had no family where he could be placed, they decided to send him to the infirmary.
The boy went without a murmur.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, NOV. 8.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, OF Ohio.

Now for the spring primaries, and a hard race it will be.

COLUMBIANA county seems satisfied with Republican office holders.

KENTUCKY can now be considered as a part of the union, and worthy of recognition as a civilized land.

GORMANISM is as dead in Maryland as Briceism is useless in Ohio. We congratulate the good citizens of Maryland on their ability to rid themselves of an incubus.

It would be an excellent idea for Uncle Sam to select Thanksgiving day as the time to carve Turkey, if the Sultan continues to trample upon American citizens.

Ir James E. Campbell ever had any presidential aspirations between the roof of his head and the inside of his hat they have probably gone glimmering. James now probably realizes that he is a politician and not a statesman.

ALL FOR FORAKER To the present time no Republican has been heard to dispute the claim of Hon. J. B. Foraker to a place in the United States senate, and there is no reason to believe that any member of the party will adopt that course. Governor Foraker not only contributed largely to the victory on Tuesday, but his efforts in the past have ever been in the cause of Republicanism and right. He fought in the politics of Hamilton county when fighting meant hard work, and as the leader of the party when governor he was ever in the van. Is he wants the senatorship, and there is every cause to think that he does, the legislature should elect upon the first ballot. Every Republican should, and doubtless will, be for Foraker. His name should be placed before the general assembly, and the big Republican majority should go to him on the first ballot. Ohio needs a good senator, and it can not do any better than confer the honor upon Mr. Foraker without preliminaries.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

One For the Sheriff. Charles Gill, sheriff-elect, was seen in town this a. m. When Charlie goes for anything he always brings it. His handsome majority Tuesday proves his popularity and he will prove an efficient officer, a worthy successor to M. O. Lodge, the present incumbent, who by his politeness, good humor and excellent administrative qualities has gained the good will and esteem of all. —Wellsville Union.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welschton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

We Just Received These

SUITS

They are up-to-date in Style, Trimmings, Workmanship and Fit. They sell at $10, $12, $15.

Isn't It Time

You bought that fall overcoat you've been promising yourself? It is. Well, then, why not buy it? Can't afford it, you say; why, nonsense. Have you seen the coats we sell at $7.00, $8.00, $9.00 and $10.00? No? Then it's time you did. Perhaps you are one of those men who would rather do without a coat than wear a cheap one; but if we show you a garment that has the style and appearance of a high priced one for the cost of a low priced one, then we overcome the objection, don't we? It's hard work to sell you a coat on paper, but come and see the coats and they'll sell themselves.

GUNS FOR LAKE USE.

Navy Department Needs Them to Arm Vessels Should We Fight England.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—In view of the president's decision in the case of the bid of the Detroit Dry Dock company, that under existing treaties naval vessels cannot be built on the great lakes, the navy department will now press upon congress the importance of allowing its estimate of $500,000 for the accumulation of a supply of rapid-fire rifles for the auxiliary navy.

One of the most forcible arguments that will be presented is the fact that Great Britain already has a number of small war vessels which can be quickly taken into the great lakes through the Canadian canals and in time of war ravage our great lake cities, which are now defenseless. With a proper supply of guns on hand, however, it is argued that a large number of the magnificent American lake steamers could be rapidly armed in an emergency and could easily overpower the British gunboats, which are not armored vessels.

ALASKANS ARE AROUSED.

They Accuse England of Trying to Seize a Part of Our Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—A. Carpenter who was formerly editor of The Alaska News at Juneau, has just returned from the north and says that the people in the territory are in a fever of excitement over the boundary question.

Mr. Carpenter has been in Alaska for two years and is familiar with the boundary question in all its details. He stigmatises the attempt of the Canadian surveying party to locate the line according to their charts as a grab up of England. The great scheme of England, he says, besides the natural greed for the gold of the Yukon, is to establish a coaling station and a port of entry on the Alaskan coast, so that she may occupy a position of vantage in the event of an Oriental war or trouble between Great Britain and Russia.

Negro Kills a Constable.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—William Wyth, constable on beat four, Talladega county, went to the house of Will McClellan, a negro farmer, to levy an attachment. As he walked up the path to McClellan's house, the latter deliberately emptied the contents of a double-barreled shotgun into his breast. Wyth has died. McClellan has fled, chased by a posse and dogs.

Barnes Pleaded Not Guilty.

TRENTON, Nov. 8.—J. Albert Barnes, formerly superintendent of ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan's Eastern Rubber company, has pleaded not guilty to the charge of the larceny of $7,000 worth of stock of the company from Magowan. The charge was made at the time of the exposure of the Magowan-Barnes scandal. A trial was set down for Nov. 18.

An Heir to $80,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—William Earl Antrim, aged 16, an apprentice in the plumbing establishment of Tebeau & Quinn in this city, is said to be heir to the title and fortunes of the Irish Antrims. It is claimed for him by those who have ample proof that his grandfather was Earl Antrim, who died recently, leaving an estate worth $80,000,000.

Fatally Shot by His Son.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 8.—Samuel S. Conrad of Mount Joy township, a well-known citizen, has been fatally shot by his son, Jacob, while the latter was handling a revolver. He was sitting on a chair examining a revolver, his father standing in front of him, when the weapon was discharged, the ball lodging in the father's abdomen.

Prominent Iron Man Dead.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Nov. 8.—George R. Sherman of Port Henry has expired there suddenly with heart disease. He was a member of the iron firm of Sherman, Witherbee & Co. of that place, and was the richest iron man in Northern New York, being worth $10,000,000.

Consul General Mills to Marry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Cards are out for the marriage of Ellis Mills, United States consul general and secretary of legation at Honolulu to Cora Richie, daughter of Benjamin Franklin Nalle, at the residence of the latter, Belleau, Rapidan, Virginia, tomorrow.

Guatemala Ready to Follow.

GUATEMALA, Nov. 8.—A committee from the Cuban insurgents has arrived here and interviewed the secretary for foreign affairs, who promised them that Guatemala will recognize the Cubans as belligerents just as soon as the United States does.

DEAD MAY NUMBER 40

The Detroit Disaster Increases in Horror.

NEARLY THIRTY BODIES RESCUED

Developments Demonstrate Conclusively That Engineer Thompson's Carelessness Caused the Fatal Explosion—The Engineer Insists the Boilers Were All Right

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—The work of rescuing bodies of the victims of the explosion in The Journal building is going steadily on. The list of missing decreases about correspondingly with the number of dead bodies taken out. Nearly 30 dead bodies have now been recovered and identified, but the number changes frequently on account of new and ghastly discoveries brought to light in the ruins. The number killed will approximate 40. The developments demonstrate conclusively that negligent care of the boilers was the cause of the catastrophe.

Official inspectors and competent engineers have examined portions of the wrecked boilers and pronounce the cause as low water, causing a superheated condition of the flues, which was followed by the dangerous injection of cold water. Engineer Thompson's carelessness is strongly condemned. The engineer of The Free Press building states that he had previously warned Thompson against leaving his boilers without having any assistant to watch them. Some occupants of the building gave similar testimony. Thompson insists that he saw both boilers ten minutes before the explosion, and that they contained plenty of water and 65 pounds pressure of steam.

The dead thus far taken from the ruins are: Lizzie Tapley, aged 20, employed by Davis & Co.; Henry Walsh, employed by Kohlbrand Engraving company; John J. Reuter, apprentice in the employ of Dunlap & Co.; George H. Soule, engraver; George Shaw, mailer, Detroit Journal; Willie Hawes, 16 years old, mailer, Detroit Journal; James Ross, William W. Dunlap, Henry Larivore, employee mailing room of Journal; unknown boy, remains found in ruins, supposed to be John Bowman; Carrie Bauer, aged 23, bookkeeper in Hiller's factory; Adolph Schrieber, Jr., John Gordon, Kittie Leonard, M. Rosa Morgan, John Breitenbecher, unknown man, Jennie Neubauer, 16 years old; Bertha Weidbusch, 19 years old; Ernest Parkins, assistant mailing clerk Journal; Emma Lichtenberg, employee Hiller's bindery; Rosa Hertz, remains frightfully burned and mutilated; Catherine Hiller, forewoman Hiller's bindery; Lue Fretz, employee Dunlap & Co.; Anna Wiedbusch, employee Hiller's bindery; John F. Derby, carpenter; Joseph Bradley, carpenter; George J. Hiller, proprietor Hiller's bindery.

A Ripper at Work in Victoria.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 8.—The finding of the dead body of Millie Crow, a colored sporting woman, in her house here, has resulted in the police being brought face to face with the fact that a mysterious stranger is at work among women of the lowest class here. Cape Mudge Sally, an Indian girl, and the former victim of the fiend perished on the night of Oct. 18, and the two cases are so strangely similar as to force the conclusion that the author is the same.

A Farmer Kills His Tenants.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—Near Roxana, Lee county, J. H. Hayes, one of the most prominent farmers in the state, has shot and killed Michael and Henry Harper, brothers and tenants on his plantation. Hayes and the Harpers had quarreled about the payment of the rent, which fell due a month ago, and had not been paid. Twice before, when Hayes attempted to collect the rent, he was driven from his field by the Harpers with shotguns.

Durrant's Day of Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Theodore Durrant will be taken to court today ostensibly to be sentenced for the murder of Blanche Lamont. There is little prospect, however, that sentence will then be pronounced. Attorneys for the defense will move for a new trial, and this motion will entail a continuance. They will be entitled to two weeks in which to prepare their brief, and it is understood that they will avail themselves of the full period.

To Advance the Stanford Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Solicitor General Conrad will on Monday next move to advance the case of the United States versus the Stanford estate on the United States supreme court docket. The motion will be based on the general importance of the case to the government and to the Stanford university. It is understood that the motion will be granted and that the argument will be set for some day in January next.

Timothy Healy Removed.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Irish National League, on the motion of Mr. T. P. O'Connor, seconded by Mr. Justin McCarthy, it was decided to remove Mr. Timothy Healy from the executive committee on account of his action at the time of the so-called Omagh revolution July 8 last, when Mr. Healy accused John Dillon of selling Tyrone to the English party.

An Aid to Mrs. Colt.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 8.—The application of Francis Colwell, counsel for Colonel S. P. Colt for a stay of proceedings in the taking of depositions of witnesses in behalf of Mrs. Colt in her suit for divorce, has been denied by Judge Stines. Colonel Colt's attorneys were notified that depositions would be taken at North Conway, N. H., today. The judge's action is claimed to be of great benefit to Mrs. Colt.

Six Perished in a Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Six members of the family of Charles Ryan have perished by fire in their home on the top floor of the four-story tenement house at 311 Val. Hunt street, Brooklyn. The fire started from a gasjet in a hall on the ground floor. Margaret Welch and her four children on the second floor were rescued by policemen.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles.

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Now will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading, sewing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that the vision is defective. It is a serious matter to neglect the eyes, as it may result in blindness. Consult one of our expert oculists and have perfectly formed spectacles. Continued use of these glasses will result in better vision from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the eye."

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, NOV. 8.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
 Of Ohio.

Now for the spring primaries, and a hard race it will be.

COLUMBIANA county seems satisfied with Republican office holders.

KENTUCKY can now be considered as a part of the union, and worthy of recognition as a civilized land.

GORMANISM is as dead in Maryland
 as Briceism is useless in Ohio. We congratulate the good citizens of Maryland on their ability to rid themselves
 of an incubus.

It would be an excellent idea for Uncle Sam to select Thanksgiving days the time to carve Turkey, if the Sultan continues to trample upon American citizens.

If James E. Campbell ever had any presidential aspirations between the roof of his head and the inside of his hat they have probably gone glimmering. James now probably realizes that he is a politician and not a statesman.

ALL FOR FORAKER.

To the present time no Republican
 has been heard to dispute the claim of Hon. J. B. Foraker to a place in the United States senate, and there is no reason to believe that any member of the party will adopt that course.
 Governor Foraker not only contributed largely to the victory on Tuesday, but his efforts in the past have ever been in the cause of Republicanism and right. He fought in the politics of Hamilton county when fighting meant hard work, and as the leader of the party when governor he was ever in the van. Is he wants the senatorship, and there is every cause to think that he does, the legislature should elect upon the first ballot. Every Republican should, and doubtless will, be for Foraker. His name should be placed before the general assembly,
 and the big Republican majority
 should go to him on the first ballot.
 Ohio needs a good senator, and it can not do any better than confer the honor upon Mr. Foraker without preliminaries.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup
 as Chamberlain's Cough remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure.
 Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

One For the Sheriff.

Charles Gill, sheriff-elect, was seen in town this a. m. When Charlie goes for anything he always brings it. His handsome majority Tuesday proves his popularity and he will prove an efficient officer, a worthy successor to
 M. O. Lodge, the present incumbent, who by his politeness, good humor and excellent administrative qualities has gained the good will and esteem of all.
 —Wellsville Union.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Weishton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

They are up-to-date in Style, Trimmings, Workmanship
 and Fit. They sell at $10, $12, $15.

Isn't It Time

You bought that fall overcoat you've been promising yourself? It is.
 Well, then, why not buy it? Can't afford it, you say; why, nonsense.
 Have you seen the coats we sell at $7.00, $8.00, $9.00 and $10.00? No?
 Then it's time you did. Perhaps you are one of those men who would rather do without a coat than wear
 a cheap one; but if we show you a garment that has the style and appearance of a high priced one for the cost of a low priced one, then we overcome the objection, don't we?
 It's hard work to sell you a coat on paper, but come and see the coats and they'll sell themselves.

TO CRUSH THE STRIKE

Hill Helped by U. S. Court and the Railroads.

JUDGE RESTRAINS THE STRIKERS.

Railroad Managers Agree to Aid the Great Northern in Fighting the A. R.
 U.—Armed Detectives Secured—New Men Hired to Take the Strikers' Places.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 8.—U.
 S. District Judge Hanford has issued an order restraining strikers on the Great Northern railroad from interfering with the operation of the road.
 The injunction was telegraphed to Spokane and given to deputy United States marshals for service.

A Chicago special says: All railroads having headquarters in Chicago have given positive assurance to President
 Hill of the Great Northern railway that as far as lies in their power they will co-operate with him in defeating the A. R. U. strike now threatened upon his road. The information comes from officials of the Chicago, Milwau-and St. Paul, the Burlington, the Illinois Central and the Chicago and East ern Illinois systems. This support of the Great Northern is an outgrowth of the plan pursued by the general managers of the different railroads of Chicago when they were dealing with the strike of last year.
 Mr. Hill has engaged a detective agency to furnish him armed guards,
 and advised the Chicago railroad managers that his road would employ any railroad man out of work who had not committed an act of violence in Chicago or elsewhere against a railroad during the strike of 1894. There are some 2,000 of these men in Chicago at the present time whose names were on the payroll of the railroads up to July 1, 1894. They include engineers, firemen, brakemen and flagmen. While they have been "blacklisted" for nearly 18 months, no charge has rested against them but of having simply quit work
 when the strike began. At 175 Monroe street these men are being engaged and furnished transportation to St. Paul.

A St. Paul special says: The Great Northern strike does not seem to be growing very rapidly. New men have reached Devil's Lake, the one point where there was something of a freight blockade, and on their arrival, some of the men who had gone out, joined with other old men, and with these new men, and all is now going on as usual
 at that point, though some American Railway union men claim to be gaining ground.

M. E. Church Extension Society.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The Church Extension society of the Methodist Episcopal church is in session here, with 14
 bishops and about 40 laymen in attendance. The report of the board of extension showed receipts on the general fund available for donations to needy churches during the past year to have been $171,387. On the loan fund the receipts were $245,438. Loans returned by churches which had been helped amounted to $51,000. There was a decrease of 60 in the number of churches
 aided below last year, and 334 below
 the year previous.

Brooklyn Democrats Admit Defeat.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8.—The Democratic campaign committee of Brooklyn has admitted the defeat of their local ticket and will take no steps looking to a recount of the ballots. Whatever Mr. Grout, the regular Democratic nominee for mayor, or any of the other candidates may do in this direction will be done by them individually and not with the sanction of the committee.

Train Robber Bagged.

WHITE EAGLE, O. T., Nov. 8.—Sheriff Worcester of Round Pond, O. T., has arrested Dock Smalley, who is wanted at Allegan, Mich., and Indaana, for train robbery, and for whose capture there was a reward of $1,000.
 James Brown, who is under arrest for
 the Lake Shore holdup at Kessler, Ind., confessed that Smalley was one of the robbers.

Mrs. Eustis' Body Arrives.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The remains of the late Mrs. James R. Eustis, wife of the United States ambassador to France,
 have arrived on the steamship Majestic.
 The body was conveyed to Jersey City for shipment south. The final resting place will be Cave Hill.

GUNS FOR LAKE USE.

Navy Department Needs Them to Arm Vessels Should We Fight England.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—In view of the president's decision in the case of the bid of the Detroit Dry Dock company,
 that under existing treaties naval vessels cannot be built on the great lakes,
 the navy department will now press upon congress the importance of allowing its estimate of $500,000 for the accumulation of a supply of rapid-fire
 rifles for the auxiliary navy.

One of the most forcible arguments
 that will be presented is the fact that Great Britain already has a number of small war vessels which can be quickly taken into the great lakes through the Canadian canals and in time of war ravage our great lake cities, which are now defenseless. With a proper supply of guns on hand, however, it is argued that a large number of the magnificent American lake steamers could be rapidly armed in an emergency and could easily overpower the British gunboats, which are not armored vessels.

ALASKANS ARE AROUSED.

They Accuse England of Trying to Seize
 a Part of Our Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—A Carpenter who was formerly editor of the Alaska News at Juneau, has just returned from the north and says that the people in the territory are in a fever of excitement over the boundary question.

Mr. Carpenter has been in Alaska for two years and is familiar with the boundary question in all its details.
 He stigmatises the attempt of the Canadian surveying party to locate the line according to their charts as a grab up of England. The great scheme of England, he says, besides the natural greed for the gold of the Yukon, is to establish a coaling station and a port of entry on the Alaskan coast, so that she may occupy a position of vantage in the event of an Oriental war or trouble between Great Britain and Russia.

Negro Kills a Constable.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—William Wyth, constable on beat four, Taliadega county, went to the house of Will McClellan, a negro farmer, to levy an attachment. As he walked up the path to McClellan's house, the latter deliberately emptied the contents of a double-barreled shotgun into his breast.
 Wyth has died. McClellan has fled, chased by a posse and dogs.

Barnes Pleaded Not Guilty.

TRENTON, Nov. 8.—J. Albert Barnes, formerly superintendent of ex-Mayor
 Frank A. Magowan's Eastern Rubber company, has pleaded not guilty to the charge of the larceny of $7,000 worth of stock of the company from Magowan.
 The charge was made at the time of the exposure of the Magowan-Barnes scandal. A trial was set down for Nov. 18.

An Heir to $80,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—William Earl Antrim, aged 16, an apprentice in the plumbing establishment of Tebeau & Quinn in this city, is said to be heir to the title and fortunes of the Irish An-trims. It is claimed for him by those who have ample proof that his grandfather was Earl Antrim, who died recently, leaving an estate worth $80-000,000.

Fatally Shot by His Son.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 8.—Samuel S.
 Courard of Mount Joy township, a well-known citizen, has been fatally shot by his son, Jacob, while the latter was handling a revolver. He was sitting on a chair examining a revolver, his father standing in front of him, when the weapon was discharged, the ball
 lodging in the father's abdomen.

 ern New York, being worth $10,000,

 foreign affairs, who promised them that Guatemala will recognize the

 the United States does.

DEAD MAY NUMBER 40

The Detroit Disaster Increases
 in Horror.

NEARLY THIRTY BODIES RESCUED

Developments Demonstrate Conclusively
 That Engineer Thompson's Carelessness Caused the Fatal Explosion—The Engineer Insists the Boilers Were All Right

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—The work of rescuing bodies of the victims of the explosion in The Journal building is going steadily on. The list of missing decreases about correspondingly with the number of dead bodies taken out.
 Nearly 30 dead bodies have now been recovered and identified, but the number changes frequently on account of new and ghastly discoveries brought to light in the ruins. The number killed will approximate 40. The developments demonstrate conclusively that negligent care of the boilers was the cause of the catastrophe.

Official inspectors and competent engineers have examined portions of the wrecked boilers and pronounce the cause as low water, causing a super-heated condition of the flues, which was followed by the dangerous injection of cold water. Engineer Thompson's carelessness is strongly condemned. The engineer of The Free Press building states that he had previously warned Thompson against leaving his boilers without having any assistant to watch them. Some occupants of the building gave similar testimony. Thompson insists that he saw both boilers ten minutes before the explosion, and that they contained plenty of water and 65 pounds pressure of steam.

The dead thus far taken from the ruins are: Lizzie Tapley, aged 20, employed by Davis & Co.; Henry Walsh, employed by Kohlbrand Engraving company; John J. Reuter, apprentice in the employ of Dunlap & Co.; George ant mailing clerk; Journal; Emma

A Ripper at Work in Victoria.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 8.—The finding of the dead body of Millie Crow,
 a colored sporting woman, in her house
 here, has resulted in the police being brought face to face with the fact that a mysterious stranger is at work among women of the lowest class here. Cape Mudge Sally, an Indian girl, and the former victim of the fiend perished on the night of Oct. 18, and the two cases are so strangely similar as to force the conclusion that the author is the same.

A Farmer Kills His Tenants.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—Near Roxana, Lee county, J. H. Hayes, one of the most prominent farmers in the state, has shot and killed Michael and Henry Harper, brothers and tenants on his plantation. Hayes and the Harpers had quarreled about the payment of the rent, which fell due a month ago, and had not been paid. Twice before, when Hayes attempted to collect the rent, he was driven from his field
 by the Harpers with shotguns.

Durrant's Day of Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Theodore Durrant will be taken to court today
 ostensibly to be sentenced for the murder of Elsie Lamont. There is little prospect, however, that sentence will then be pronounced. Attorneys for the defense will move for a new trial, and this motion will entail a continuance.
 They will be entitled to two weeks in which to prepare their brief, and it is understood that they will avail themselves of the full period.

To Advance the Stanford Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Solicitor General Conrad will on Monday next move to advance the case of the United States versus the Stanford estate on the United States supreme court docket.
 The motion will be based on the general importance of the case to the government and to the Stanford university. It is understood that the motion will be granted and that the argument
 will be set for some day in January next.

Timothy Healy Removed.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Irish National League, on the motion of Mr. T. P. O'Connor, seconded by Mr.
 Justin McCarthy, it was decided to re-

 Mr. Healy accused John Dillon of sell-witnesses in behalf of Mrs. Colt in her were notified that depositions would be taken at North Conway, N. H., today.

 The judge's action is claimed to be of great benefit to Mrs. Colt.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this notice at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Some will be able to read it with such easy approach. If unable to do so, your eye may be defective and should have immediate attention. When the eye becomes tired from reading of the letters look distant and rest together. It is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The lenses sold in the cheap grade are of unequal quality and have injuriously formed surfaces. Continued use of these cheap lenses will result in positive injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the glass."

A REVOLT IS BREWING

The Sultan's Power Threatened In Turkey.

ARMENIANS ARE BEING AIDED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 8.—The Turkish government may soon be face to face with an open and widespread revolt against the rule of the sultan.

Arrests of Armenians and Turkish suspects are constantly being made here and elsewhere, but owing to the press censorship, few facts in this connection are obtainable. Possibly the most grave turn in recent events lies in the fact that the dissatisfaction against the rule of the sultan has extended to the Turkish army and navy, and that the palace officials are in a state of the greatest alarm. Nobody here would be astonished to hear at any moment of an outbreak in the palace itself; in fact, people well versed in Turkish affairs assert that this is among the immediate possibilities, and that only a prompt show of force upon the part of the European fleets can avert it.

A revolt is imminent in Syria and troops are being sent there. This lends color to the report that the Armenians are receiving support from unexpected sources.

The Turkish minister for foreign affairs has promised to give the ambassadors of the powers a definite reply within two days, as to what steps the sultan intends to take for the restoration of order in Armenia and to provide for the protection of Christians in that part of the Turkish empire.

This was the point especially alluded to by the ambassadors on Tuesday last when they called separately and represented that the present state of affairs in Armenia could not be allowed to continue, and that if adequate measures were not shortly taken to bring about the restoration of order the powers would be compelled, acting in concert, to take their own steps in the matter.

No combined action of such grave importance upon the part of the powers has been taken for years, and the fact that the powers in Syria at the time of the massacre of 1896 is considered as a direct warning to the sultan that Europe will intervene to restore order in Armenia unless the Turkish government acts promptly.

Baseball Franchise Sold.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—The franchise, ball park lease and all other property of the Scranton Baseball Association of the Eastern League has been bid in at sheriff's sale by President Betts of the Scranton association for $2,190, which amount will have to satisfy judgments of $5,000. President Betts disposed of all but a quarter of his interest to Harry P. Simpson, a young and wealthy coal operator and athletic enthusiast.

To Take Strikers' Places.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 8.—One hundred and fifty operatives from Michigan and Wisconsin have arrived at Olneyville to take the places of strikers dropped in the Atlantic mills. As there is no room in the boarding houses or millcamps, the new arrivals are camped in the big corporation building and fed by a public caterer.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—John R. Gentry has been ignominiously beaten by Joe Patchen here. Patchen won the first two heats easily in 2:15 1/2 and 2:15. Gentry was distanced in the second heat and withdrawn. Patchen paced the third beat against a running mate in 2:11. The track was slow.

A Ruling by Secretary Smith.

The Republican State Committee Gives the Plurality by Counties

COLUMBUS, Nov. 8.—The Republican state committee has figured the Republican plurality for governor in Ohio at 95,348. The Democrats carried only 26 of the 88 counties in the state. No effort has been made to figure the total vote cast, but it is believed to be one of the largest in the history of the state. The official count will not materially change the net results.

The following are the pluralities by counties: Republican—Adams, 180; Ashtabula, 4,750; Athens, 2,894; Belmont, 1,515; Carroll, 1,044; Champaign, 1,308; Clark, 2,695; Clermont, 112; Clinton, 1,828; Columbiana, 3,500; Cuyahoga, 11,683; Delaware, 1,024; Erie, 1,367; Fayette, 1,177; Fulton, 1,451; Gallia, 2,045; Geauga, 1,823; Greene, 2,319; Guernsey, 1,500; Hamilton, 1,953; Hancock, 800; Hardin, 809; Harrison, 1,066; Highland, 867; Hocking, 184; Huron, 1,836; Jackson, 1,638; Jefferson, 2,457; Knox, 449; Lake, 2,206; Lawrence, 2,342; Logan, 2,233; Lorain, 3,000; Lucas, 5,324; Madison, 711; Mahoning, 1,130; Medina, 1,507; Meigs, 2,393; Miami, 1,550; Montgomery, 2,533; Morgan, 1,054; Morrow, 729; Muskingum, 937; Noble, 550; Paulding, 806; Perry, 653; Pike, 425; Portage, 1,464; Preble, 519; Ross, 1,014; Scioto, 2,388; Stark, 2,184; Summit, 1,562; Trumbull, 3,840; Tuscarawas, 631; Union, 1,410; Van Wert, 95; Vinton, 751; Warren, 1,638; Washington, 1,564; Williams, 862; Wood, 1,508. A BIG RAILROAD DEAL.

The Vast Erie System Sold to the Reorganization Committee.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 8.—In the quiet town of Ramapo, N. Y., a stupendous railway transaction has been effected. The vast Erie system has been sold to C. H. Coster, Louis Fitzgerald and Anthony J. Thomas, the reorganization committee, for $20,000 over and above the bonded indebtedness of the road. The matter was kept a secret and none but the high officials knew the time and place of sale.

For many months the Erie has just managed to struggle along under a debt of nearly $78,000,000. Reasonably bonded, it would be a money-maker. To effect this the services of J. P. Morgan were enlisted, and yesterday a sale was the result. The reorganization committee is intricate and far reaching. It embraces a thorough rejuvenation of the entire line from New York to Chicago; provides for the canceling of all present securities by giving the holders stock in the new company, and practically assures the future stability of the road. The property that was sold is the divisions from New York to Salamanca and from Marion to Chicago. A deal was on foot to effect the proposed sale of the "Neyman" from Salamanca to Marion at the same time, and it is reported that this has been done, but General Manager Tucker of this city could not verify the report.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Mackall, of California hollow, is recovering after a long illness caused by typhoid fever.

George Morton, John Morton and Peck McKinney were hunting yesterday and made a good bag of game.

Edward Kuchert and Miss Mary Omenhauser were married last evening by Squire Manley at his residence on East Market street.

The stone work of the East End culvert is completed, a brand new flooring connects the walls, and the work of filling in the road will soon be resumed.

Rivermen here are anxious to see the new packet Virginia. They have heard so much about the boat that they can hardly contain themselves until she arrives. The craft will be launched tomorrow.

A number of salesmen for the potteries are at their homes in this city, and will make no more trips until after the first of the year, although there are many others who will not come in until after December is here.

A grocer on the hill is taking a new form of advertising, and thinks he has a very good thing. He makes himself solid with small boys of the neighborhood by generously distributing peanuts and sweets, and thus catches any quantity of trade at small cost.

Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, is home from Dillworth, where he spent 10 days in search of better health. He has again taken up his work at the association's rooms, which have been in charge of Director Morris during his absence.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian church, who are interested in missionary work, are giving out invitations for a birthday party to be held in the church next week. They will entertain their friends and incidentally collect a little money for the cause.

The friends of one of the best known pressers at Burford's are saying that he will soon be married to an estimable young lady of Salineville. A warehouseman at one of the Knowles potteries is also listed by those who know him best as preparing for a wedding in the near future.

Bob Westlake, the base ball player, has gone with his wife to Florida where they will spend the winter. Bob has signed with a club in that state, and will play there until spring sends him north. George Westlake has made a proposition to the same club, and if it is accepted he too will go south.

Clark Birch, the blacksmith who was kicked by a horse here a year ago and has since been suffering from cancer, is very ill at the home of his father near Gavers, and it is thought that he can not live a week. Many physicians have examined his case, but have been unable to do him the slightest good.

A party of coon hunters got into a field on the Anderson farm, not far from town, the other night, and had an experience they will not soon forget. An angry bull happened to be in the lot, and it was fortunate for some of the boys that a tree grew out of the ground within the enclosure. They do not tell how long they were in the tree, but acknowledge that it was at least an hour of anxiety.

Miss Laura March, a young woman who resided here until recently with her parents on Franklin street, was this week united in marriage with James Huffer, an estimable young man of Andrew, Iowa. The young lady has been living in that place with relatives. The happy pair are expected here next week, and will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Harry Holtzman and Fred Heckathorn went to the woods yesterday with their guns, and brought home with them 18 rabbits and two pheasants. Parties go out from the city every day, and some are very successful, the woods apparently being full of game. Coons are also favorites of the hunters, but the success in that direction has been so great this year that the boys are losing interest in the sport.

Newell Buzzard, a youth whose parents could not control him, was this morning taken to Lisbon, where he was committed by Judge Young to the Lancaster reformatory. The boy would not attend school, and William Beardmore, the truant officer, took up his case. The number of incorrigibles sent from Liverpool since the school year began is much greater than usual, and there are others to follow if they continue their present course.

Parties residing in East End and on the hill are after an individual who sells furniture polish and has been cheating them by a series of neat little tricks. His favorite plan is to have the customers think he has a marvelous fluid, and he asks a dollar a bottle for it, guaranteeing that it will make old furniture look like new. Some people have paid the price, but others have demurred, and purchased the stuff for 10 cents. It is no good they say, and there is talk of complaint being made to the police if the fellow continues his swindling.

A REVOLT IS BREWING

The Sultan's Power Threatened In Turkey.

ARMENIANS ARE BEING AIDED.

The Turkish Minister For Foreign Affairs Has Promised a Speedy Reply to the Ambassadors' Demand For the Porte's Plans—Powers Threaten Interference.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 8.—The Turkish government may soon be face to face with an open and widespread revolt against the rule of the sultan.

Arrests of Armenians and Turkish suspects are constantly being made here and elsewhere, but owing to the press censorship, few facts in this connection are obtainable. Possibly the most grave turn in recent events lies in the fact that the dissatisfaction against the rule of the sultan has extended to the Turkish army and navy, and that the palace officials are in a state of the greatest alarm. Nobody here would be astonished to hear at any moment of an outbreak in the palace itself; in fact, people well versed in Turkish affairs assert that this is among the immediate possibilities, and that only a prompt show of force upon the part of the European fleets can avert it.

A revolt is imminent in Syria and troops are being sent there. This lends color to the report that the Armenians are receiving support from unexpected sources.

The Turkish minister for foreign affairs has promised to give the ambassadors of the powers a definite reply within two days, as to what steps the porte intends to take for the restoration of order in Armenia and to provide for the protection of Christians in that part of the Turkish empire.

This was the point especially alluded to by the ambassadors on Tuesday last when they called separately and represented that the present state of affairs in Armenia could not be allowed to continue, and that if adequate measures were not shortly taken to bring about the restoration of order the powers would be compelled, acting in concert, to take their own steps in the matter.

No combined action of such grave importance upon the part of the powers has been taken for years, and the fact that the porte was reminded of the intervention of the powers in Syria at the time of the massacre of 1890 is considered as a direct warning to the sultan that Europe will intervene to restore order in Armenia unless the Turkish government acts promptly.

Baseball Franchise Sold.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—The franchise, ball park lease and all other property of the Scranton Baseball Association of the Eastern League has been bid in at sheriff's sale by President Betts of the Scranton association for $2,190, which amount will have to satisfy judgments of $5,000. President Betts disposed of all but a quarter of his interest to Harry P. Simpson, a young and wealthy coal operator and athletic enthusiast.

To Take Strikers' Places.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 8.—One hundred and fifty operatives from Michigan and Wisconsin have arrived at Olneyville to take the places of strikers dropped in the Atlantic mills. As there is no room in the boarding houses or millcamps, the new arrivals are camped in the big corporation building and fed by a public caterer.

Gentry Badly Beaten.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—John R. Gentry has been ignominiously beaten by Joe Patchen here. Patchen won the first two heats easily in 2:15 1/2 and 2:15. Gentry was distanced in the second heat and withdrawn. Patchen paced the third heat against a running mate in 2:11. The track was slow.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 8.—The Leader, the leading Republican newspaper in Kentucky, always a stalwart supporter of Governor McKinley for the presidency, declares for McKinley for president and Governor-Elect Bradley for vice president.

McKinley Congratulates Griggs.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 8.—Governor McKinley of Ohio has telegraphed to Governor-elect Griggs, of New Jersey: "Ohio Republicans are delighted over the result in New Jersey. Accept my congratulations."

Bradley's Plurality Over 17,000.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 8.—The returns give Bradley a plurality of over 17,000. The result in the legislature is still doubtful, with the chances in favor of the Republicans on joint ballot.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Mackall, of California hollow, is recovering after a long illness caused by typhoid fever.

George Morton, John Morton and Peck McKinney were hunting yesterday and made a good bag of game.

Edward Kuchert and Miss Mary Omenhauser were married last evening at Squire Manley at his residence on East Market street.

The stone work of the East End culvert is completed, a brand new flooring connects the walls, and the work of filling in the road will soon be resumed.

Rivermen here are anxious to see the new packet Virginia. They have heard so much about the boat that they can hardly contain themselves until she arrives. The craft will be launched tomorrow.

A number of salesmen for the potteries are at their homes in this city, and will make no more trips until after the first of the year, although there are many others who will not come in until after December is here.

A grocer on the bill is taking a new form of advertising, and thinks he has a very good thing. He makes himself solid with small boys of the neighborhood by generously distributing peanuts and sweets, and thus catches any quantity of trade at small cost.

Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, is home from Dillworth, where he spent 10 days in search of better health. He has again taken up his work at the association's rooms, which have been in charge of Director Morris during his absence.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian church, who are interested in missionary work, are giving out invitations for a birthday party to be held in the church next week. They will entertain their friends and incidentally collect a little money for the cause.

The friends of one of the best known pressers at Burford's are saying that he will soon be married to an estimable young lady of Salineville. A warehouseman at one of the Knowles potteries is also listed by those who know him best as preparing for a wedding in the near future.

Bob Westlake, the base ball player, has gone with his wife to Florida where they will spend the winter. Bob has signed with a club in that state, and will play there until spring sends him north. George Westlake has made a proposition to the same club, and if it is accepted he too will go south.

Clark Birch, the blacksmith who was kicked by a horse here a year ago and has since been suffering from cancer, is very ill at the home of his father near Gavers, and it is thought that he can not live a week. Many physicians have examined his case, but have been unable to do him the slightest good.

A party of coon hunters got into a field on the Anderson farm, not far from town, the other night, and had an experience they will not soon forget. An angry bull happened to be in the lot, and it was fortunate for some of the boys that a tree grew out of the ground within the enclosure. They do not tell how long they were in the tree, but acknowledge that it was at least an hour of anxiety.

Miss Laura March, a young woman who resided here until recently with her parents on Franklin street, was this week united in marriage with James Huffer, an estimable young man of Andrew, Iowa. The young lady has been living in that place with relatives. The happy pair are expected here next week, and will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Harry Holtzman and Fred Heckathorn went to the woods yesterday with their guns, and brought home with them 18 rabbits and two pheasants. Parties go out from the city every day, and some are very successful, the woods apparently being full of game. Coons are also favorites of the hunters, but the success in that direction has been so great this year that the boys are losing interest in the sport.

Newell Buzzard, a youth whose parents could not control him, was this morning taken to Lisbon, where he was committed by Judge Young to the Lancaster reformatory. The boy would not attend school, and William Beardmore, the truant officer, took up his case. The number of incorrigibles sent from Liverpool since the school year began is much greater than usual, and there are others to follow if they continue their present course.

Parties residing in East End and on the hill are after an individual who sells furniture polish and has been cheating them by a series of neat little tricks. His favorite plan is to have the customers think he has a marvelous fluid, and he asks a dollar a bottle for it, guaranteeing that it will make old furniture look like new. Some people have paid the price, but others have demurred, and purchased the stuff for 10 cents. It is no good they say, and there is talk of complaint being made to the police if the fellow continues his swindling.

MOVED NINE BODIES

Changes Being Made at the Old Cemetery.

A GOOD STATE OF PRESERVATION

Some Will Be Interred in Riverview, and
Two Will Be Taken to New Brighton.
Many Bodies Remain in the Old Grave
Yard.

There was an unusual stir in the old cemetery at the foot of Sixth street today, and a crowd of curious people were attracted because bodies that had been buried many years ago were being disinterred.

The remains were those of Thomas G. Thompson, who died in 1874, Mrs. Susie Thompson, who passed away in 1871, John H. Viney, whose death occurred in 1864, John H. Burgess, died in 1858, Jane Burgess, in 1869, and the wife and sister of Ralph Wintergill who have been dead many years. All the bodies were found to be in a good state of preservation although some of the coffins showed plainly the ravages of decay, and some bodies were nothing more than the skin stretched over the skeletons. One casket was opened several years ago, and it was found that the whiskers of the deceased had grown about six inches since his death. The bodies of the first seven named above will be interred in Riverview cemetery, and the other bodies will be sent to New Brighton for burial. The cemetery still contains a number of bodies, some of them having been buried there for over half a century. Many persons in the city who have relatives there have been heard to say that they will gladly have the bodies moved if the city will but appropriate the ground for park purposes.

Amy Lee and Frank Doane.
We take great pleasure in calling the attention of the patrons of our theater to the fact that Miss Amy Lee, that most exquisite of sopranos, and Mr. Frank Doane, the inimitable comedian, will, during their coming engagement, in which they offer the new dramatic comedy "Miss Harum Scaram," present some very realistic scenery, the first act being particularly so, representing a typical road house with a race track in the distance. The play will be presented at the Grand tomorrow evening.

A New Schedule.
On Monday a new schedule will become operative on the street railway. The last car will leave the barn at 11 o'clock, and the last one leave Tenth street in Wellsville at 12 o'clock. Between 10 in the morning and 1 in the afternoon there will be fewer cars than usual, and after 10 at night, except on Saturday, cars will be run on 24-minute time. On Saturday it will be as usual.

A Serious Case.
Harold Holmes, a young man who made many friends here while playing with the Henderson company a few weeks ago at the Grand, is now in Mercy hospital in Pittsburg, suffering from blood poisoning. He hurt his ankle a short time ago, and the poison spread so rapidly that it was feared he would die, but heroic measures saved his life.

Thurman May Dies.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 8.—Allen G. Thurman, one of the best known Democrats of Ohio and a resident of this city who has long been prominent, fell on the street here this morning, and hurt himself so that it is feared he can not recover. His age is very much against him getting well.

Wedded.

Mr. Holland Manley, a well known potter, and Miss Ethel Burlingame, of Clarkson, were Wednesday married by Doctor Huston at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church. They at once went to a cosy home on Third street, where they will reside. The young people have many friends in the city, who wish them all the happiness they can have.

Looking After the Soldiers.

Captain Walter Supplee is in Lisbon today conferring with the commissioners about the future of Company E. The exact nature of the business has not been given out.

Will soon be Well.

George Perry, who dislocated his arm a week ago, is improving rapidly, and will soon be well. He has been away from his work since the accident occurred.

A Son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Criss McConnell, Sixth street, yesterday afternoon, a son.

All good house-wives, who desire to economize, and at the same time get good goods, will read the ad of the Atlantic Tea company.

Take advantage of the low prices at R. G. Boyd's, 199 Market street.

A SAD AFFLICTION.

William Hahn Suffers From an Army Experience.

William Hahn, an aged veteran of the late war who resides on Cadmus street, suffers great pain from an army experience. In a battle in which he took part a gun was fired close to his ear, and from that time he has been suffering. For years only one ear was affected, but the other day he discovered that the other was rapidly becoming as painful. The agony which the veteran is compelled to endure is excruciating, and he can find no remedy for the injury.

A NASTY FALL

Herbert Crites Went Down the Elevator Shaft at the China Works.

Herbert Crites, employed in the warehouse at the china works, got a nasty fall yesterday afternoon. He imagined the elevator was directly behind him, and stepped backward in an attempt to get on the platform; but the elevator had been moved to another floor, and Crites went headlong to the story beneath. When picked up it was thought that he had been seriously injured, but he had only sustained a slight cut on the head. How he escaped is a mystery.

A PAY STATION.

Smith's Ferry to be Connected by Telephone.

Manager Gilchrist and a force of linemen went to Smith's Ferry this morning to connect the village with the Central District system. A pay station will be established, and if Liverpool wants to talk with the Ferry it can do so by paying the price. The phone will be operated from the Rochester exchange, and the line will soon be extended to Industry. The policy of the company is to make connections wherever it is possible to gain a customer.

Ned Hanton in Town.

Ned Hanton, the ball player who was once the ideal of Liverpool as the catcher of the old Eclipse team but who has been living in Tiffin for several years, was in town today shaking hands with his friends. He has decided to leave Tiffin, and will locate in New Cumberland, where he will take charge of a pool room owned by his brother. Ned can catch a ball as well as in his palmist days.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. Elta Baggs today shipped her household goods from Martin's Ferry to this city.

Mrs. Helen Cook, who has been a resident of the city for a number of years, moved today to Sharpsburg, Pa. The household goods of W. S. Rogers were shipped from this place to Cleveland today, where the family will in future reside.

A Bid for Business.

C. W. Kerstetter, manager of a Cleveland sprinkler company, whose system of protection against fire is similar to that already used in several factories in the city, is in town looking after business. The gentleman is figuring with several pottery concerns who think of using the system.

Soon to Wed.

Frank McCune, of Second street, has been informed that his sister, Miss Mary McCune, will be married at Bradock to Mr. Charles R. Rively, a prominent young man of that place. The young lady has a number of friends in this city who wish her happiness.

The Old Bonnets.

Some street cars are being fitted with the old canvas fronts, which became notorious through the city last winter as bonnets. A number of cars are being cleaned at the shed, and made to look as respectable as possible.

Building a Summer Home.

J. J. Purinton has purchased a tract of ground on the Calcutta road a few miles from the city, and will build upon it a pleasant summer home. The building will be fitted with all modern conveniences.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Have you read the wonderful advertisement of the Atlantic Tea company? Bargains for the table—great bargains.

Frank, Shumaker & Co., will continue the closing out sale of Williamson's stock, and will give you bargains in this special line that cannot be duplicated in the city. Test the matter. You will not regret it. You can save snug sums of money.

BIG BATTLE IN CUBA.

An Important Engagement Fought and the Insurgents Defeated.

HAVANA, Nov. 8.—An important engagement has occurred at Cayo Espino, near the border between Santa Clara and Matanzas, in the southern part of the island. The column of troops commanded by Colonel Luis Melina, the forces of the civil guard, and a battalion of the Maria Christina regiment had an engagement with the insurgent bands of Loret Nunez and Perequito Perez.

The action was fiercely contested and lasted from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until into the night. Official reports state that under cover of darkness the insurgents fled. The next morning it was found that they had left upon the field 80 killed and a large number of wounded. The reports state that the troops lost on their side one officer and seven soldiers killed and a number wounded. Details of the fight are very meager and nothing is known of the relative positions of the contestants since the battle.

MOVED NINE BODIES

Changes Being Made at the Old Cemetery.

A GOOD STATE OF PRESERVATION

Some Will Be Interred in Riverview, and
Two Will Be Taken to New Brighton.
Many Bodies Remain in the Old Grave
Yard.

There was an unusual stir in the old cemetery at the foot of Sixth street today, and a crowd of curious people were attracted because bodies that had been buried many years ago were being disinterred.

The remains were those of Thomas G. Thompson, who died in 1874. Mrs. Susie Thompson, who passed away in 1871, John H. Viney, whose death occurred in 1894, John H. Burgess, died in 1858, Jane Burgess, in 1869, and the wife and sister of Ralph Wintertill who have been dead many years. All the bodies were found to be in a good state of preservation although some of the coffins showed plainly the ravages of decay, and some bodies were nothing more than the skin stretched over the skeletons. One casket was opened several years ago, and it was found that the whiskers of the deceased had grown about six inches since his death. The bodies of the first seven named above will be interred in Riverview cemetery, and the other bodies will be sent to New Brighton for burial. The cemetery still contains a number of bodies, some of them having been buried there for over half a century. Many persons in the city who have relatives there have been heard to say that they will gladly have the bodies moved if the city will but appropriate the ground for park purposes.

Amy Lee and Frank Doane.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of the patrons of our theater to the fact that Miss Amy Lee, that most exquisite of sonnettes, and Mr. Frank Doane, the inimitable comedian, will, during their coming engagement, in which they offer the new dramatic comedy "Miss Harum Scaram," present some very realistic scenery, the first act being particularly so, representing a typical road house with a race track in the distance. The play will be presented at the Grand tomorrow evening.

A New Schedule.

On Monday a new schedule will become operative on the street railway. The last car will leave the barn at 11 o'clock, and the last one leave Tenth street in Wellsville at 12 o'clock. Between 10 in the morning and 1 in the afternoon there will be fewer cars than usual, and after 10 at night, except on Saturday, cars will be run on 24-minute time. On Saturday it will be as usual.

A Serious Case.

Harold Holmes, a young man who made many friends here while playing with the Henderson company a few weeks ago at the Grand, is now in Mercy hospital in Pittsburg, suffering from blood poison. He hurt his ankle a short time ago, and the poison spread so rapidly that it was feared he would die, but heroic measures saved his life.

Thurman May Die.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 8.—Allen G. Thurman, one of the best known Democrats of Ohio and a resident of this city who has long been prominent, fell on the street here this morning, and hurt himself so that it is feared he can not recover. His age is very much against him getting well.

Wedded.

Mr. Holland Manley, a well known potter, and Miss Ethel Burlingame, of Clarkson, were Wednesday married by Doctor Huston at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church. They at once went to a cosy home on Third street, where they will reside. The young people have many friends in the city, who wish them all the happiness they can have.

Looking After the Soldiers.

Will Soon Be Well.

A SAD AFFLICTION.

William Hahn Suffers From An Army Experience.

William Hahn, an aged veteran of the late war who resides on Cadmus street, suffers great pain from an army experience. In a battle in which he took part a gun was fired close to his ear, and from that time he has been suffering. For years only one ear was affected, but the other day he discovered that the other was rapidly becoming as painful. The agony which the veteran is compelled to endure is excruciating, and he can find no remedy for the injury.

A NASTY FALL

Herbert Crites Went Down the Elevator Shaft at the China Works.

Herbert Crites, employed in the warehouse at the china works, got a nasty fall yesterday afternoon. He imagined the elevator was directly behind him, and stepped backward in an attempt to get on the platform; but the elevator had been moved to another floor, and Crites went headlong to the story beneath. When picked up it was thought that he had been seriously injured, but he had only sustained a slight cut on the head. How he escaped is a mystery.

A PAY STATION.

A pay station will be established, and if Liverpool wants to talk with the Ferry it can do so by paying the price. The phone will be operated from the Rochester exchange, and the line will soon be extended to Industry. The policy of the company is to make connections wherever it is possible to gain a customer.

He has decided to leave Tiffin, and will locate in New Cumberland, where he will take charge of a pool room owned by his brother. Ned can catch a ball as well as in his palmist days.

A Bid for Business.

C. W. Kerstetter, manager of a Cleveland sprinkler company, whose system of protection against fire is similar to that already used in several factories in the city, is in town looking after business. The gentleman is figuring with several pottery concerns who think of using the system.

Soon to Wed.

Frank McCune, of Second street, has been informed that his sister, Miss Mary McCune, will be married at Bradock to Mr. Charles R. Riverly, a prominent young man of that place. The young lady has a number of friends in this city to wish her happiness.

The Old Bonnets.

Some street cars are being fitted with the old canvas fronts, which became notorious through the city last winter as bonnets. A number of cars are being cleaned at the shed, and made to look as respectable as possible.

Building a Summer Home.

J. J. Purinton has purchased a tract of ground on the Calcutta road a few miles from the city, and will build upon it a pleasant summer home. The building will be fitted with all modern conveniences.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by A. H.
